

Kendo Safety Guidelines and Protocol

Cedar Ridge Martial Arts Academy - Safety Protocol

Version 3.1 - Revised November 2026

1. General Safety Rules

- BULLET: All students must bow upon entering and leaving the dojo
- BULLET: No running or horseplay in the training area
- BULLET: Report any equipment damage immediately to an instructor
- BULLET: Students must inspect their own equipment before each class
- BULLET: No contact sparring without instructor supervision

2. Equipment Safety Standards

- BULLET: Shinai must be inspected for splinters before each use
- BULLET: Kote must have intact palmar stitching for sparring
- BULLET: Men must be properly fitted with no loose hardware
- BULLET: Bogu straps must be secure and tied according to standard
- BULLET: Damaged equipment must be immediately removed from use

3. Injury Protocol

BULLET: Minor injuries (bruises, sprains): First aid kit in hallway cabinet

BULLET: Head injuries: Stop all activity, assess, call 911 if any doubt

BULLET: Bleeding: Apply pressure, clean with antiseptic, bandage

BULLET: Serious injury: Call 911 immediately, do not move injured person

4. Emergency Contacts

Fire/Police/Medical: 911

Portland Fire Station 25: (503) 555-0911

Providence Portland Medical: (503) 555-0100

Aaron Delgado (Owner): (503) 555-0147

Tom Iverson (Head Instructor): (503) 555-0148

